

Handiscope & Televideo

It is a RF video transmission system for periodic or constant survey in particular areas.

The system is made by a transmitting module to terminate the umbilical camera cable and by a control unit endowed of a liquid crystal monitor and fed by a batteries series that allows the total autonomy.

A second video output allows the connection with an external monitor

OPERATIVE RANGE: 200/400 mt

Underwater Color Video System

